

“Alfresco Abundance” at Army Public School Jammu Cantt

Children’s Day, celebrated on November 14th, is a special occasion dedicated to honouring the joy and vitality of childhood. Army Public School Jammu Cantt celebrated Children’s Day in a fun-filled and engaging manner. The event aimed to create a memorable experience for students, offering them a break from their regular academic routine and a chance to engage in various recreational activities. The day was filled with excitement, creativity, and camaraderie, making it a wonderful event for all students and teachers to remember.

Objectives of the Event:

The primary objectives of the event were:

1. To celebrate innocence, happiness, and spirit of children, allowing them to have a special day of enjoyment and relaxation.
2. To provide an opportunity for students to rock and roll with their companions.

Event Highlights:

The “Alfresco Abundance” featured a variety of activities, games and refreshments, creating an exciting and lively atmosphere throughout the day.

The day began with fun-filled activities on the school ground. Students were seen enjoying the lush greenery under the fluffy clouds. The relaxed setting allowed everyone to socialize and enjoy the outdoors. The food kept everyone energized and refreshed throughout the event. Several different types of swings were arranged by the school such as the ferry wheel, bungee swing, bouncy jumping and sliding, trampoline each offering a unique experience for the children. Students enjoyed the toy train, making train noises and shouting “Hip-hip Hurray”. Students spent a quality time with their friends enjoying the shallow water along with music and splashes all around. The students were offered with a variety of delicious snacks, drinks, and treats in the morning and afternoon as well.

This year, Children’s Day was an unforgettable event that celebrated the joy and energy of childhood. It provided students with a platform to relax, engage in fun activities, express their creativity, and bond with friends and teachers. The event not only offered entertainment but also reinforced important values such as teamwork, physical activity, and artistic expression. The day ended with smiles, laughter, and the satisfaction of having made cherished memories.

